

The information you requested contains a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body.

This personal information is confidential under Section 552.136 of the Texas Government Code. Our office is prohibited by law from releasing this personal information to you, and therefore we have removed this information from the enclosed information we are providing to you.

Normally, we must request a ruling from the Texas Attorney General before we can withhold any of the information you requested. However, Section 552.136 allows us to withhold this specific information without requesting a ruling from the Attorney General.

You have the right to appeal our decision to withhold this information from you. Instructions for appeal are below. If you do not want to appeal, you do not need to do anything else. Please note that we are only withholding the specific categories of information that are confidential under Section 552.136. We will process the rest of your request for information in accordance with the terms of the Public Information Act.

How to appeal the withholding of information under Section 552.136 Texas Government Code

If you wish to appeal the withholding of information discussed above, you must send the following to the Attorney General:

- 1) a signed, written statement indicating your wish to appeal the withholding of information;
- 2) the name of the governmental body that withheld information from you;
- 3) the date you made your original request for information; and
- 4) a copy of your original request for information, or if you are unable to provide a copy, a description of your original request for information.

You may also submit written comments stating why you think the information should be released to you, but you are not required to do so.

Send your appeal by mail or fax to the Attorney General at:

Open Records Division
P.O. Box 12548
Austin, Texas 78711-2548
Fax: 512-463-2092

Within forty-five business days after receiving all of the above-listed items necessary to file your appeal, the Attorney General will issue a written ruling on the matter. You will receive a copy of this ruling in the mail.
